

Alexandra Healy KC

'Alexandra is one of the brightest stars at the Bar. She is one of those rare individuals who can turn their hand to anything with seemingly consummate ease.'

Legal500 (2026)

YEAR OF CALL 1992. APPOINTED KC 2011

Education

MA Cantab (Trinity Hall)

Appointments

Recorder of the Crown Court (2010)

KC list for SFO prosecution Panel

Co-Chair Bar Council Remuneration Committee (2012 – 2018)

Secretary of the Criminal Bar Association (2007 – 2008)

Director of the Bar Mutual Indemnity Fund (2010 – 2019)

Memberships

Criminal Bar Association
Fraud Lawyers Association

Overview of Practice

She both defends and prosecutes. She is ranked in Band 1 as a leading silk in Chambers and Partners 2019 in relation to crime and financial crime and also as a Band 1 Leading Silk in the Chambers and Partners High Net Worth 2019 Directory. She has acted on behalf of a senior Barclays banker in relation to the LIBOR investigation, in respect of whom the SFO recently decided to take no further action. She recently successfully prosecuted two police officers for misconduct in public office, in relation to their failure to investigate child abuse offences.

She successfully prosecuted a six-handed fraud involving football apprenticeship training on behalf of the SFO. She is also secured a successful result on behalf of the principal defendant in a 5 month, twelve-handed trial alleging conspiracy to defraud brought by Southampton City Council. She has advised private companies and prosecuting authorities in relation to Bribery Act offences. She also advises private organisations on issues relating to employee fraud.

She successfully defended the Sun's Whitehall editor, Clodagh Hartley, against an allegation of conspiracy to commit misconduct in public office. She has defended an SFO prosecution involving £160 million banking fraud, R v Alexander, and successfully defended a bank manager against an allegation to commit corruption, prosecuted as part of a major fraud that led to the collapse of Willmetts Solicitors, R v Entwistle and others. She has had further success defending allegations of insider dealing in R v Sanders and others (involving the spread-betting firm Blue Index) and successfully defended one of the defendants in Operation Inertia, a £100 million MTIC contra trading case.

She has prosecuted a number of murder trials and has considerable experience in dealing with sensitive sexual offence cases including involving vulnerable witnesses. She has experience cross-examining autistic witnesses and carrying out cross-examination through an intermediary.

Other successful prosecutions include a multi-jurisdictional boiler-room fraud, involving Regulation S shares and carbon credits, R v MacDonald and Downes, which featured in the TV documentary 'Fraud Squad'; a fraud involving the Land Registry and Probate Division; the prosecution of a dentist accused of defrauding the NHS and a series of frauds on various charities.

Reviews

Alexandra is listed as a Leading Individual for both Crime and Financial Crime (previously Fraud) in the Chambers & Partners Directory and in the Legal 500.

She was instructed to act as independent counsel in the 'Cash for Honours' investigation.

'Alexandra Healy KC is excellent. She is one of the leading silks and an absolute star. She has incredible ability to retain and recall information. She has a lovely manner.'

Chambers and Partners (2026)

Practise Areas/Notable Cases

– Cases of Interest – General Crime

R v French and others – A murder and perverting the course of justice prosecution.

R v Sithole – Arson murder of 6 year old girl.

R v Hartley – Conspiracy to commit misconduct in a public office.

R v Ghauri and others – Immigration fraud.

R v H – Child sex abuse involving 6 child complainants, one of whom autistic.

R v Bedi – Attempted murder/s.18 – successfully appealed imposition of IPP.

R v Chenery Wickens – Murder of BBC make-up artist.

R v Mukim and others – Conspiracy to pervert the course of justice.

R v Jaggs – Murder of the daughter of Harrow House Master.

R v Dennis and others – Misconduct in a public office – involving allegations of police corruption.

R v Edwards – Murder

R v Fox and others – Heathrow gold bullion robbery.

R v Thompson – ‘Black Widow’ murder.

– Reported Cases

R v Ben-Rejab and Baccar [2011] EWCA Crim 1136.

Milton v CPS [2007] EWHC 532.

DPP v Milton [2006] EWHC 242.

Turner v DPP [1996] RTR 274.

– Fraud & Financial Regulation

Alexandra has developed a particular expertise in the area of Fraud and Financial Regulation. She is sought out both to defend and prosecute cases of complexity. She is currently instructed on behalf of the SFO to prosecute a six-handed fraud involving football apprenticeship training. She is also instructed to defend the principal defendant in a twelve-handed conspiracy to defraud case brought by Southampton City Council. She is instructed on behalf of a company facing prosecution for a s.7 Bribery Act offence.

She has considerable experience of cases involving allegations of Insider Dealing, having defended in R v Butt and others, the first prosecution of spread betting as Insider Dealing. She successfully defended allegations of insider dealing in R v Sanders and others (involving the spread-betting firm Blue Index). She has also advised the FCA in relation to potential Insider Dealing prosecutions.

She has also extensive experience of dealing with revenue fraud cases, including MTIC fraud, and successfully defended one of the defendants in Operation Inertia, a £100 million MTIC contra trading case.

One area of particular expertise that she has developed relates to allegations of corruption and bribery. She successfully defended a bank manager against an allegation to commit corruption, prosecuted as part of a major fraud that led to the collapse of Willmetts Solicitors, R v Entwistle and others. She successfully defended Clodagh Hartley (the Sun Whitehall Editor) against charges of conspiracy to commit misconduct in a public office. She has recently been retained to defend a company against allegations of failing to prevent bribery.

She advises organisations on dealing with employee fraud, both in relation to its investigation and as to the consequences that flow from it.

– Cases of Interest – Fraud & Financial Regulation

R v Alexander and others – £140m bank fraud.

R v Khan and others – Bank fraud.

R v Hartley – Sun Whitehall Editor – Conspiracy to commit misconduct in a public office.

R v Ghauri and others – Immigration fraud.

R v MacDonald and Downes – Regulation S shares and carbon credit boiler room fraud.

R v Sanders and others – Insider dealing.

R v Ravjani and others – MTIC Contra fraud.

R v Shepherd and others – Beijing Olympics ticketing fraud.

R v Fallon and Carr – Land Registry and probate fraud.

R v Williams and others – ‘Ghost workers’ fraud.

R v Carlton and others – VAT fraud/money laundering.

R v Butt and others – Insider dealing.

R v Madeley and others – Inland Revenue fraud.

R v Latif – Bank fraud.

R v Palmer and others – Timeshare fraud.

– Asset Recovery, Restraint and Confiscation

Alexandra has extensive experience dealing with all aspects of restraint and confiscation proceedings as a result of her considerable work in financial crime.

– Business Regulation

Alexandra has considerable experience dealing with trading standards prosecutions, health and safety investigations including inquests, prosecutions brought for trademark infringement, licensing and other issues dealt with by local authorities.

She is currently instructed to defend in a substantial 12-handed prosecution brought by Southampton City Council in relation to the operation of an emergency plumbing business involving a vast trading standards investigation.
